PETER'S PUNGENT PENCIL PUSHING

COMMENTS ON LIVE TOPICS OF THE DAY.

RAILWAY AND OTHER MATTERS

The Pennsylvania and Reading Railroad Companies at Loggerheads—A Bogus Mr. Jackson Flouts About Town.

WE may expect lively news in connection with the construction of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Grardville branch. The company's surveys lined the route on the mountain south of the Turkey Run colliery breaker, but a change was made necessary on account of the P. & R. C. & I. Co. building a platform so as to cross the line. The "Penny" company has now decided to build the line lower down and run under a portion of the breaker and then trundle over the electric railway and connect with the original route south of the Wm. Penn turnpike. To get under the breaker it will be necessary for the "Penny" to cut away timbers to make a passage wide enough and when the work of making the passage begins the fun will bloom. Italians have started work on the new branch near the Shenandoah City colliery and the Turkey Run colliery episode will not materialize for several days to come.

I notice a paragraph in the Bluefield, (W. Va.) Railway and Mining Journal that speaks as follows concerning one of our townsmen: "Mr. Harry S. Boughney, of Philadelphia, Pa., has accepted a position in Miss Wilder's barber shop. He is a first class artist and is making many friends by his amiable manner and easy workmanship."

The action of the Borough Council in adopting an ordinance authorizing the borrowing of money for public water works is a subject of considerable discussion. A question has been raised as to whether or not the Councilmen who voted for the adoption have violated the injunction granted by the court and which is still in force pending argument. If there is a violation the members who so voted are liable to be hauled up for contempt of court.

The Shenandoah Herald threatens to expose the names of Reading bosses who have been trying to compel employees to deal at certain stores. Tell the whole story. It will accomplish good.—W. Weekly Record.

Only one thing remains to bring the matter to an issue and that is the appointment by the P. & R. Company of some neutral party to conduct an investigation. The names of people and places are ready for delivery to such a party. The complaining parties refuse to give the facts for publication until the Reading Company makes a serious attempt to show that it does not countenance company stores. In other words the complainants are not disposed to place the ammunition in the hands of the enemy.

The following personal was handed to us last evening for publication, with a request that a copy of the paper be sent to Ashland: "R. C. Jackson, ex-superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, was a visitor to town to-day. Mr. Jackson is a distant relative of the late Secretary Folger." This Mr. "Jackson" must be a fraud. R. C. Jackson is now superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, New York division. He is not in the habit of bumping around the country and knocking a barkeeper's eye out for a drink after heralding his name and position. The worthy superintendent is altogether a different kind of a man and he has two arms—not one, as is the case with the alleged Mr. "Jackson." I think Mr. "Jackson" wasted time here.

I am informed that a young woman who ran away from her home in Pottsville is a guest of one of our hotels at the expense of two young men of town. I note this to give the parents of the wayward girl a clue to her whereabouts and to let the hotel keeper know that I know the place is not being conducted on a legitimate plan.

A SOCIAL EVENT.

A Party at the Straup Residence Last Evening.
Dr. D. W. Straup and wife last evening gave a conundrum party at their residence on East Lloyd street in honor of their guest, Mrs. Joseph P. Pfaff, of Slatington. The rear porch of the residence was elaborately decorated with flowers and bunting of various colors and design and afforded a very cosy and enjoyable place for the guests during the evening. Among the guests were Dr. James Stein and wife, C. Holderman and wife, Miss Mattie Hopkinson, of Bramwell, West Virginia; Mrs. M. S. Riggs, Misses Clara, Maud and Emma Keiper, Mrs. J. Claude Keiper, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Borden, Drs. J. S. M. S. and D. S. Kistler and Dr. Hamilton. An excellent luncheon was served and the guests succeeded in passing a very pleasant evening by solving the amusing conundrums they found under their pates. Dr. and Mrs. Straup are excellent entertainers, as all who partook of their hospitality last night agreed.

HERE AND THERE.

Interesting Items Concerning Different Sections of the Region.
The deadlock in the Mahanoy township school board continues, and since the meeting of Friday night last, all effort to bring the two sides together for the transaction of business seems to be impossible, and a reorganization of the board by the court appears to be the only recourse left.
A Shamokin young man, who sprained his foot in a game of ball, was obliged to have the member amputated, as blood poisoning set in.
The Hazleton Plain-Speaker says: "Paul Edwards, the carriage builder, is a great pigeon fancier of local fame. Among his many pigeons he has numerous Antwerp carriers. Not long since he gave a friend of his in Mahanoy City two eggs laid by one of his celebrated carriers for hatching purposes as the friend wished to have several of that kind among his flock. As soon as matured they flew to this city and took up their quarters in Mr. Edwards' coop. This is a pigeon story that we know all about ourselves."

Pure and Wholesome Quality
Commends to public approval the California liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Fige. It is pleasant to the taste and by acting gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels to cleanse the system effectually, it promotes the health and comfort of all who use it, and with millions it is the best and only remedy.

POPULAR ONE DAY

Trips to the Sea Shore via Pennsylvania Railroad.
At this season a day taken for recreation is never without good results. From the fact of so many resorts being within a short distance of the city, and the low rate excursion tickets prevailing, no excuse exists for not taking short vacations.

The popular tri-weekly day trips to Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and Long Branch are within the reach of all. They leave from Market street wharf every Tuesday, and run via Sea Side Park. From Broad street every Wednesday, and every Thursday from Market street wharf, running via Bordentown and Jamesburg. The excursions will be continued until the close of August. Special trains will leave Philadelphia uniformly at 7 a. m.; returning, leave Long Branch at 6:10 p. m., and the old popular rate of $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12 years of age will be continued.

To Work Out Taxes.
Pathmaster Coyle, of Hazle township, says the Sentinel, has been notified by the coal mining companies of the township, except J. C. Hayden & Co., of Jeanesville, and Linderman & Skeer, of Stockton, that they would work out their taxes on the roads instead of paying cash as formerly. A. Pardee & Co. have men at work now on the road between Hazleton and Cranberry. This new move of the companies will give the township good roads but it will throw out of work many of the men who have been putting in time on the "pikes."

Off For a Good Time.
A lively party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Noll, Mr. and Mrs. John Post, Misses Kate and Lizzie Post, M. Post, Miss Annie and Joseph Peters, Mr. Schaaf, Miss Schiltzer, Miss Schmicker, Mrs. William Graeber and daughter, Mrs. John Beyrnt and Jacob Noll, Jr., left on the 5:57 Lehigh Valley train this morning to visit friends and have a good time at Wilkes-Barre and Scranton.

Other tours will be run, embracing Washington trips, tours to the South, the Hudson River, Glen Island and Tochester Beach.

Itineraries and information may be had upon application to Tourist Agent, Pennsylvania Rail Road, 233 South Fourth street, Philadelphia.

Auction Sale.

DIVISION OF THE WARDS OF TOWN

THE VIEWERS HELD A MEETING THIS MORNING.

Squire Monaghan Leads it so as to Secure a Division of the First Ward by Centre Street.

HE viewers appointed to look into the advisability of dividing the wards of town, Col. J. G. Frick, A. B. Cochran and J. H. Muder, all of Pottsville, met at the Kendrick House this morning to hear suggestions and view maps. Squire Monaghan and his whole court staff was on hand to represent the First ward. H. J. Muldoon spoke for the Fifth and F. J. Brennan the Third.

The Whitaker brothers, Edward O. Donnell, John T. Stanton, Chief Burgess Smith and George Felmer were also on hand. S. G. M. Holloper, Esq., T. R. Boddall, Esq., and a number of others were present to urge the division. Col. Frick was chairman of the meeting. Squire Monaghan and Mr. Holloper stated that the necessity for making the division was conceded and the Squire added that the only difference of opinion was on the division lines. He produced a map which, he thought, showed a fair division.

After considerable discussion over the map Col. Frick decided to adjourn and give the petitioners until the 27th inst. to prepare and produce a map. Squire Monaghan was opposed to any delay, but the Colonel overruled his objection. There now appears to be no doubt about a division being made. In fact it does not seem that the viewers will consider that question at all, but will devote the attention to the fixing of dividing lines.

Newspaper Comment.
The Shenandoah Sunday News comes out squarely in favor of the County Commissioners, together with whatever extravagance, misappropriation of money and all they may be guilty of. The News is also the self-appointed champion of the Independent candidate for President Judge and bristles all over with madness because, with the exception of the Ashland Telegram, all the daily papers in the county and nearly every weekly in the same territory endorsed the action of the Auditors by resolution for the investigation of the monetary affairs of the county, in which some astonishing developments have resulted. But this a free country and the News is fully entitled to its opinions, which, however, will not avail in putting a stop to the investigation now in progress on the Hill.—Republican

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED
Pennsylvania Rail Road Tours in the Near Future.
A glimpse at the schedule of summer personally conducted Pennsylvania Rail Road tours yet to come is very interesting.

One leaves for Yellowstone Park August 25th by a superbly-appointed train of Drawing-Room Sleeping, Dining and Observation Cars, $100 the round trip, covering all expenses for entire two weeks absent; then another, a tour to the North, embraces Watkins' Glen, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Rapids of the St. Lawrence, Montreal, Au Sabie Chasms, Lakes Champlain and George, Saratoga, and daylight ride down the Hudson River. August 16th the tour leaves Philadelphia, and the round trip is $80, covering all expenses for two weeks. Niagara Falls tours from Philadelphia leave August 11th and 25th, September 3rd and 29th, 1892. $10 is the round trip rate. Tickets valid for return ten days from date of issue.

Other tours will be run, embracing Washington trips, tours to the South, the Hudson River, Glen Island and Tochester Beach.

Itineraries and information may be had upon application to Tourist Agent, Pennsylvania Rail Road, 233 South Fourth street, Philadelphia.

Auction Sale.
There will be an auction sale of the old Cather foundry, consisting of five lots and buildings, at the Ferguson House, Saturday, August 13th, 9 o'clock p. m.

PERSONAL.

John Cather, Sr., left for Bluefield, W. V., to-day.
Misses Hattie and Cleo Leasig are attending Mountain Grove camp meeting.
The child of Edward A. Doherty, of North Emerick street, is suffering from pneumonia.

Editor Arnold, of the Girardville Gazette, came up on the electric road last evening and called on friends.
Mrs. J. Wasley and Mrs. Harry Beyrnt visited Centralia last evening and were the guests of Miss Rachel Reese.

Miss Florence Hoffman, who spent the past week in town with friends, left to-day for her home in Washington, D. C.
Editor Wilson, of the Mt. Carmel Item, occupied a seat in the Herald sanctum yesterday and indulged in a pleasing chat on newspaper affairs.

James S. Williams, son of J. P. Williams, the South Main street furniture dealer, returned last night from Atlantic City, where he spent several days.
David T. Lloyd, of West Coal street, who had his right arm broken in two places in the Gilberton colliery about three weeks ago, says the limb is healing nicely.

J. P. Williams, the undertaker, was overcome by the heat at the funeral of the late Jacob Loucks yesterday. The attack was not a severe one and Mr. Williams had recovered from it to-day.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Local, County, State and National Themes Considered.
There is much activity at the National headquarters of both parties.

Banner raising is all the go in some parts of the country.
Grey Gables and Leon Lake will go down in political history as the resting places for presidential candidates.

If Congress had remained in session another fortnight, the Democrats wouldn't have carried a Northern state in November. As it is, they have a fighting chance to carry New Jersey, but even there the tide is against them.

Tell those "protection Democrats"—if you can find them—that their room is better than their company. They are not Democrats at all. They are Republicans, and, if they be honest men, they will vote for Harrison. We don't want them.—Louisville Courier-Democrat.

Now that Congress has put up the shutters and turned off the gas, natural and manufactured, Senator Vest will probably go back to old Missouri and resume the "war of extermination upon protected industries" which he waged so valiantly, but unsuccessfully, just four years ago. A little vigorous exercise of that kind may do Vest good, and it won't hurt the protected industries in the least. Vest will find the factory walls ready whenever he wants to train his peep shooter on them.

Nipped in the Bud.
It is charged that a certain member of the Mt. Carbon school board attempted to bribe one of the members with a $5 bill in order to break a deadlock in the election of a teacher. The money was refused and the matter may be brought to the notice of the District Attorney. This is the action Councilman Lamb should have taken when, as he says, an attempt was made to bribe him with a block of electric railway stock.

Died.
BRENNAN.—In Shenandoah, July 9, James Brennan.
Funeral from his late residence on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. High mass in Annunciation church. Interment in Annunciation cemetery. Friends and relatives respectfully invited. 10-2.

Rescue Recovering.
The Herald-to-day learned that the son of Superintendent Edward Reese is recovering from his self-inflicted injuries. A telephone dispatch received in town last night was misinterpreted and the young man was incorrectly reported as dying.

Picnic To-day.
The members of the Christian Endeavor, connected with the Presbyterian church, are holding a picnic to-day at Pastime Park. The electric cars carry passengers to the ground.

Large Funeral.
The funeral of the late Jacob Loucks took place yesterday and was largely attended.

Of Interest to Athletes.
James Robinson, the athletic trainer at Princeton College, Princeton, N. J., says: "I have found it imperative to have sure and simple remedies on hand in case of cuts, bruises, strains, sprains, colds, rheumatism, etc. Shortly after entering upon my profession, I discovered such a remedy in Alcock's Porous Plasters. I tried other plasters, but found them too harsh and irritating. Alcock's Porous Plasters give almost instantaneous relief, and their strengthening power is remarkable. In cases of weak back put two plasters on the small of the back and in a short time you will be capable of quite severe exercise. In "sprain" and "distance" races and jumping, the muscles or tendons in the legs and feet sometimes weaken. This can invariably be relieved by cutting the plaster in narrow strips, so as to give free motion, and applying on muscles affected."
